

CHARTER OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF GOPRO, INC.

(as adopted by the Board of Directors on January 29, 2014)

PART 1: PURPOSE

The purpose of the Audit Committee (the “Committee”) of the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of GoPro, Inc. (the “Company”) is to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities related to the Company’s financial accounting, reporting, and controls. The Committee’s principal functions are to assist the Board in its oversight of:

- a. the integrity of accounting and financial reporting processes of the Company and the audits of the Company’s financial statements by the Company’s independent auditors (the “Independent Auditors”);
- b. risk management;
- c. the independence and performance of the Independent Auditors;
- d. the performance of an effective Internal Audit function; and
- e. compliance by the Company with legal and regulatory requirements.

This charter (the “Charter”) sets forth the authority and responsibility of the Committee in fulfilling its purpose. While the Committee has the responsibilities and powers set forth in this Charter, it is not the duty of the Committee to plan or conduct audits or to determine that the Company’s financial statements are complete and accurate and are in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. This is the responsibility of the Company’s management and the Independent Auditors.

PART 2: COMPOSITION, MEMBERSHIP AND APPOINTMENT

The Committee will consist of three or more members of the Board, with the exact number determined by the Board, provided that prior to the first anniversary of shares of the Company's capital stock becoming listed on the applicable Exchange, the Committee will consist of two or more members of the Board, with the exact number determined by the Board.

Each member of the Committee will:

- a. be an “independent director” as defined under the applicable rules, regulations and listing requirements of the applicable Exchange, as amended from time to time (the “Exchange Rules”), except as may otherwise be permitted by the Exchange Rules;
- b. be “independent” as defined in Section 10A(m) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”) and Rule 10A-3 and any other rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) under the Exchange Act (the “Commission Rules”), except as may otherwise be permitted by the Commission Rules;
- c. have the ability to read and understand fundamental financial statements, including the Company’s balance sheet, income statement, and cash flow statement, and have sufficient financial sophistication and experience to meet the financial sophistication and experience requirements of the Exchange Act, the Commission Rules and the Exchange Rules;
- d. be free from any relationship that, in the opinion of the Board, would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment as a Committee member.

In addition, at least one member of the Committee will have prior experience in accounting, financial management or financial oversight, as required by the Exchange Rules, and be an “audit committee financial expert” as defined in Item 407(d)(5)(ii) of Regulation S-K promulgated by the Commission.

All members of the Committee will be appointed by, and will serve at the discretion of, the Board. The Board may appoint a member of the Committee to serve as the chairperson of the Committee (the “Chair”); if the Board does not appoint a Chair, the Committee members may designate a Chair by their majority vote. The Chair will set the agenda for Committee meetings and conduct the proceedings of those meetings.

PART 3: RESPONSIBILITIES

The principal responsibilities and duties of the Committee in serving the purposes outlined in Part I of this Charter are set forth below. These duties are set forth as a guide with the understanding that the Committee will carry them out in a manner that is appropriate given the Company’s needs and circumstances. The Committee may supplement them as appropriate and may establish policies and procedures from time to time that it deems necessary or advisable in fulfilling its responsibilities.

The Committee will:

Financial Statements and Disclosures

1. Review and discuss with management the Company’s quarterly results and the related earnings press release prior to distribution to the public. Periodically discuss on a general basis with management the type of information to be disclosed and type of presentation to be made regarding released financial information.
2. Review the Company’s quarterly and annual financial statements.
3. In connection with the Committee’s review of the annual financial statements:
 - a. discuss the financial statements and the results of the Independent Auditors’ audit of the financial statements with the Independent Auditors, the internal audit department, and management;
 - b. discuss any items required to be communicated by the Independent Auditors in accordance with the applicable requirements of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (the “PCAOB”). These discussions should include an overview of the audit strategy, the Independent Auditors’ judgments about the quality and appropriateness of the Company’s accounting principles, the reasonableness of significant judgments, the clarity of the disclosures in the Company’s financial statements, the representations the Independent Auditors are requesting from the Company’s management and any significant difficulties encountered during the course of the audit, including any restrictions on the scope of work or access to required information; and
 - c. discuss with the Company’s management and the Independent Auditors the Company’s selection, application and disclosure of critical accounting policies and practices; and
 - d. review the Company’s specific disclosures under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.”
4. Recommend to the Board whether the annual financial statements should be included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K.
5. In connection with the Committee’s review of the quarterly financial statements:
 - a. discuss with the Independent Auditors and the Company’s management the results of the Independent Auditors’ SAS No. 100, Interim Financial Information (Codification of Statements on Auditing Standards, AU § 722), or similar, review of the quarterly financial statements;
 - b. discuss significant issues, events and transactions and any significant changes regarding accounting principles, practices, policies, judgments or estimates with the Company’s management and the Independent Auditors; and
 - c. review the Company’s specific disclosures under “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations.”

6. Resolve any disagreements between the Company's management and the Independent Auditors regarding financial reporting.

Internal Controls

7. Review and discuss with the Independent Auditors and the Company's management their periodic reviews of the adequacy of the Company's accounting and financial reporting processes and systems of internal control, including any significant deficiencies and material weaknesses in their design or operation.
8. Review any allegations of fraud involving management or any employee of the Company with a significant role in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting that are disclosed to the Committee.
9. Discuss any comments or recommendations of the Independent Auditors outlined in their annual management letter or internal control reports. If appropriate, approve a schedule for implementing any recommended changes and monitor compliance with the schedule.
10. Periodically consult with the Independent Auditors about internal controls, the fullness and accuracy of the Company's financial statements and any other matters that the Committee or the Independent Auditors believe should be discussed privately with the Committee.
11. Meet separately, periodically, with management and with internal auditors (or other personnel responsible for the internal audit function)
12. Review with management the Company's major financial risk exposures and the steps management has taken to monitor such exposures, including the Company's procedures and any related policies, with respect to risk assessment and risk management.
13. Establish procedures for (i) the receipt, retention and treatment of complaints received by the Company regarding accounting, internal accounting controls or auditing matters, and (ii) the confidential anonymous submission by employees of the Company of concerns regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters.

Independent Auditors

14. Be directly responsible for the selection, compensation, retention and oversight of the work of the Independent Auditors. The Independent Auditors will report directly to the Committee.
15. Review the continuing independence of the Independent Auditors, including:
 - a. obtaining and reviewing, on an annual basis, a letter from the Independent Auditors describing all relationships between the Independent Auditors and the Company required to be disclosed by the applicable requirements of the PCAOB;
 - b. reviewing and discussing with the Independent Auditors their independence, including the nature and scope of any such relationships; and
 - c. taking appropriate action to oversee the independence of the Independent Auditors, including discontinuing any relationships that the Committee believes compromise the independence of the Independent Auditors.
16. Approve the Company's hiring of employees or former employees of the Independent Auditors, as required by regulations and by applicable listing standards.
17. Review and approve the final proposals for audit planning, scope and staffing developed by the Independent Auditors.
18. Approve the fees and any other compensation to be paid to the Independent Auditors. Approve any non-audit services to be provided by the Independent Auditors permitted by the Exchange Rules, Commission Rules and applicable law or regulation. The Committee may establish pre-approval policies and procedures, as permitted by the Exchange Rules, Commission Rules and applicable law, for the engagement of the Independent Auditors to render services to the Company, including without limitation policies that would allow the delegation of pre-approval authority to one or more members of the Committee, provided that any pre-approval decision is reported to the Committee at its next scheduled meeting.

19. Review and discuss with the Independent Auditors the reports delivered to the Committee by the Independent Auditors regarding:
 - a. critical accounting policies, estimates and practices used;
 - b. alternative treatments of financial information within generally accepted accounting principles that have been discussed with management, the ramifications of the alternatives, and the treatment preferred by the Independent Auditors; and
 - c. other material written communications between the Independent Auditors and the Company's management, such as any management letter or schedule of unadjusted differences.
20. Conduct an annual review of the Independent Auditor's report describing its internal quality-control procedures; any material issues raised within the preceding five years respecting one or more independent audits carried out by the firm and any steps taken to deal with any such issues.

Compliance

21. Review the effectiveness of the Company's systems for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations and the results of management's investigation and follow-up (including disciplinary action) of any instances of material or significant noncompliance.
22. Review the findings of any examinations by regulatory agencies, and any auditor observations.
23. Consider waivers of the Code of Business Conduct and Ethics (other than transactions that are subject to review by the Board as a whole or any other committee of the Board), including waivers requested for executive officers and directors (other than where the potential waiver involves a member of the Committee, in which event, such waiver shall be subject to the review of the Board), and retain authority to grant any such waivers.

General

24. On a regular basis, review the status of any legal matters that could have a significant impact on the Company's financial statements.
25. Annually prepare a report to the Company's stockholders for inclusion in the Company's annual proxy statement as required by the Commission Rules.
26. Regularly report to the board of directors about committee activities, issues, and related recommendations.
27. The Committee will evaluate the Committee's composition and performance on an annual basis and submit a report to the Board. The Committee also will review and reassess the adequacy of this Charter periodically, and recommend to the Board any changes the Committee determines are appropriate.
28. Take such other actions and perform and carry out any other responsibilities and duties delegated to it by the Board or as the Committee deems necessary or appropriate consistent with its purpose.

PART 4: STUDIES AND ADVISERS

The Committee, in discharging its responsibilities, may conduct, direct, supervise or authorize studies of, or investigations into, any matter that the Committee deems appropriate, with full and unrestricted access to all books, records, documents, facilities and personnel of the Company. The Committee has the sole authority and right, at the expense of the Company, to retain legal and other consultants, accountants, experts and advisers of its choice to assist the Committee in connection with its functions, including any studies or investigations. The Committee will have the sole authority to approve the fees and other retention terms of such advisers. The Company will provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for:

- a. payment of compensation to any legal and other consultants, accountants, experts and advisers retained by the Committee; and
- b. ordinary administrative expenses of the Committee that is necessary and appropriate in carrying out its functions.

PART 5: MEETINGS, ACTIONS WITHOUT A MEETING AND STAFF

Meetings of the Committee shall be held as frequently as determined appropriate by the Committee and at least four times a year. The Chair, in consultation with the other members of the Committee, will set the dates, times and places of such meetings.

The Chair or any other member of the Committee may call meetings of the Committee by notice in accordance with the Company's Bylaws. A quorum of the Committee for the transaction of business will be a majority of its members. Meetings may be held via tele - or video conference. The Committee may also act by unanimous written consent in lieu of a meeting in accordance with the Company's Bylaws.

Subject to the requirements of this Charter and applicable law, rules and regulations, the Committee and the Chair may invite any director, executive or employee of the Company, or such other person, as it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities, to attend and participate (in a non-voting capacity) in all or a portion of any Committee meeting. The Committee may exclude from all or a portion of its meetings any person it deems appropriate in order to carry out its responsibilities. The Chair will designate a secretary for each meeting, who need not be a member of the Committee. The Company shall provide the Committee such staff support as it may require.

PART 6: MINUTES AND REPORTS

The Committee will maintain written minutes of its meetings and copies of its actions by written consent, and will make such minutes and copies of written consents available to the other members of the Board and cause them to be filed with the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The Chair will report to the Board from time to time with respect to the activities of the Committee, including on significant matters related to the Committee's responsibilities and the Committee's deliberations and actions.

PART 7: COMPENSATION

Members of the Committee will receive such fees, if any, for their service as Committee members as may be determined by the Board, which may include additional compensation for the Chair.
